The Syrian Network for Human Rights does not publish any statistics of whatever scale including daily statistics, without providing the human rights and the Arab and international media groups with lists of the names and not just the aggregate numbers.

We also add to the name a photograph and a video of the person that was mentioned on the same day. On the following days the team continues to seek to obtain pictures or videos of those who do not have any and once attained, they are directly added to the archive and attached with the name automatically to maintain accuracy and credibility.

The comprehensive PDF file of the victims of the Death toll in March 2013 can be downloaded from this link.

This PDF file contains all the details, including photos, videos, and full names.

SNHR holds the Syrian President Commander in Chief of the Syrian army, Bashar al-Assad, responsible for all acts of homicide, torture and massacres perpetrated in Syria as he holds the primary responsibility for giving the orders for these acts. SNHR considers all Syrian regime members and heads of the security and military bodies directly complicity in those acts. By the same token, SNHR considers the Iranian government and Hezbollah as direct partners in the acts of homicide who shall legally and judicially liable for those acts along with all those funding and supporting the Syrian regime which is systematically committing massacres on a daily basis. SNHR holds all the above mentioned parties responsible for all consequences and potential reactions from the Syrian people in general and the families of the victims in particular.

SNHR calls upon the UN Security Council, the United Nations and all member states to act with utmost urgency to undertake all necessary actions to protect civilians in Syria. By failing to do so, they shall be considered responsible, to a large extent, for the death of civilians along with the Syrian regime. It is their moral and legal duty to meet their obligations and accelerate the process of referring all those responsible for crimes against humanity in Syria to the ICC.
