

statement*Syrian Network for Human Rights apologizes as it won't be able to display the 50,000 victims

Syrian Network for Human Rights apologizes as it won't be able to display the 50,000 victims-board in the sit-in that was organized to commemorate the first-year anniversary of the chemical weapons massacre that was perpetrated by the Syrian regime in Ghoutas. The Jordanian authorities informed us that we can't show the board although SNHR was granted a permission by the Jordanian government at a previous time.

