

The Arrest of an Activist from the SNHR in Syria

Documented by SNHR

Date of incident: 7/10/2012

Name: Omar Arnous

Birth Date: 16/5/1979

Father's name: Mohammed Mamoun

Mother's name: Maraya

A photo of Dr. Omar Arnous

The individual were arrested in their home at 5am without earlier notice or arrest warrant. No charges were laid.

The house in located in the Mashro'' Dumar district, block 3, building 2, floor 7, in Damascus.

Dr. Omar is a human rights activist who has defended human rights in Syria. He is a dentist and is studying in a private university and is working toward a PhD in dentistry.

The activist is a member of the Syrian Network for Human Rights and is a Syrian citizen. No organization, whether Arab or international, has taken any measures to ensure his safety. The Syrian Network for Human Rights hold the Syrian government fully responsible for the well-being of the arrested individuals. The network demands swift action from human rights organizations around the world in order for the Syrian government to be pressured into releasing Dr. Omar and his family.

