

A comparison between the victim numbers in Syria and the victim number in Gaza

The Syrian regime kills more civilians that the Israeli regime

Methodology :

Period of time covered by the report : 7 July, 2014 – 10 July, 2014

Numbers of Palestinian victims : are according to The Ministry of Health in Gaza

Numbers of Syrian victims : are according to Syrian Network for Human Rights

Details :

Israeli forces have killed in its military campaign against Gaza strip 87 civilians including 19 children and 12 women at least. This high percentage (36%) demonstrates the use of excessive force and indiscriminate shelling to deliberately target civilians by Israel which can be classified openly as a war crime.

In the same period of time, Syrian government forces have killed more civilians as we documented the killing of no less than 134 civilians including 25 children, eight women, and 21 victims who died under torture.

The following table compares the numbers of the Syrian victims and the Palestinian victims in the same period of time:

Date	Israeli government forces	Syrian government forces
Monday 7 July, 2014	Eight civilians	19 civilians including six children, four women, three victims who died under torture
Tuesday 8 July, 2014	24 civilians including seven children and two women	38 civilians including four children, one woman, and five victims who died under torture
