The Death of Alaa Al Salman
by the Government Forces

The Syrian Network for Human Rights has briefed the UN team concerned with extra-judicial killing of the case of Alaa Al Salman from Homs city in Homs province, born in 2000, died in March 29, 2012 due to his wounds from government mortar shell fired on Al Bayada neighborhood in Homs city in March 26, 2012 and asked them to record his case in their records.

The Syrian authorities did not admit killing the citizen, and his family couldn't apply any complaint out of fear of pursuit by the security forces.

SNHR assure its fear of the civilians killings operations since 2011, and the number of deaths is still rising.
