

Documenting Deir Ba'alba Massacre in April

Period covered by the report:

Introduction

Deir Ba'alba massacre synchronized with the execution of Annan Plan at the beginning of April. The details of the massacre remained uncovered as a result of communication cutting of the neighborhood and besieging it.

Between 2 and 9 April, Karm az-Zaytoon, al-Adawyea, and al-Rifai massacres with the ethnic cleansing with the same performed way.

Massacre location: Deir Ba'alba massacre, which is made of three neighborhoods: al-Kassara, the Southern neighborhood, and the Northern neighborhood.

The massacres were committed in the three neighborhoods: breaking into the houses by Alawite Shabiha (militiamen), accompanied by security forces and army, which most leaders are from the Alawite sect too, where they performed systematic field executions in different ways, burned bodies, looted, and raped many women.

The residents and the activists who were able to enter Deir Ba'alba days after the Massacre. The evidence of the atrocities against the residents was the smell of the degrading bodies.

There were breaking into the houses, killing of their residents, mass detaining of hundreds of the people, and then executing operations were followed by bodies burning and deformation and burying them in mass graves.

There were bodies of raped women before being killed and many limbs of them were killed to steal their gold.

All these operations indicate with no doubt that the aim of this terrible massacre was doing ethnic cleansing to empty the neighborhood of its residents.

The only survivor says:

“After the severe shelling by rocket launchers and mortar shells on the houses for one day, since the morning of the next day; Iranian shabiha and pro-regime shabiha entered and began breaking into the houses and killing children by knives. They took the women out of the houses and raped many of them in the streets in front of the people before slaughtering them. They kidnapped the girls to unknown places. Assad shabiha gathered the elders in the yard with the youth and forced us to kneel. Each row had 60 people or more, until we became three rows. I was in the second row. They started shooting on us (field execution), and left them there. I was shot by a bullet passed next my eye and made it blind, and I was shot by another bullet in my shoulder.

When the shabiha came in the third house, I already crawled on my feet and ran to one of the houses and hid in its roof. I saw them, with my eyes, burning the martyrs who killed them previously. After that, they were entering the houses, stealing them, and then burning the building. I couldn't eat, drink, or sleep for a long period.

My kids were slaughtered in front of my eyes, I don't where they took my wifre, and my kids and nephews were field-executed by Assad shabiha".

The only survivor of Deir Ba'alba massacre is telling the details in the next video footage:

Conclusions:

1- SNHR considers what happened in Deir Ba'alba of killing a crime against humanity, as it is not the first time, but a semi-daily incident and includes many Syrian governorates. It is a wide-spread methodology.

2- The size of the massacre, the nature of the repeated massacres, the severe power used, the discriminate shelling, and the coordinated attacks can't be done except by high orders. It is a state policy.

3- The mechanism of committing the massacre indicates with no doubt that it was committed on a sect attitude.

4- The Syrian government and its affiliated security forces and shabiha hold the full legal and humanitarian responsibilities that were arranged by committing this massacre.
