The Syrian Network for Human Rights (SNHR), founded in June 2011, is a non-governmental, independent group that is considered a primary source for the OHCHR on all death toll-related analyses in Syria.

Mrs. Sahar Ka'ka

killed by Syrian regime forces

The Syrian Network for Human Rights informed the United Nations Special Rapporteur on the extrajudicial killing on the case of Mrs. Sahar Ka'ka from Damascus suburbs governorate, Douma city, born in 1965, who died as fixed-wing Syrian regime warplanes fired missiles on Douma city, that controlled by armed opposition faction at the time of the incident, on April 3, 2017.

The Syrian Authorities didn't admit to killing the woman, and her family couldn't submit a complaint because they live in an area which is out of Syrian regime forces control. SNHR confirmed its fear of the killing of civilians from the year 2011, and the victims' numbers are continuously rising.
