The Death of Loay Al Battah by the Government Forces

The Syrian Network for Human Rights has briefed the UN team concerned with extrajudicial killing of the case of the citizen Loay Al Battah from Al Mayadeen city in Deir Ez-Zor province, born in 1983, and asked them to record his case in their records.

The Syrian authorities did not admit killing the citizen, and his family couldn't apply any complaint out of fear of pursuit by the security forces.

SNHR assure its fear of the civilians' killings operations since 2011, and the number of deaths is still rising.
