The Syrian Network for Human Rights (SNHR), founded in June 2011, is a non-governmental, independent group that is considered a primary source for the OHCHR on all death toll-related analyses in Syria.

The nurse Khadija Khaled al Dmairi

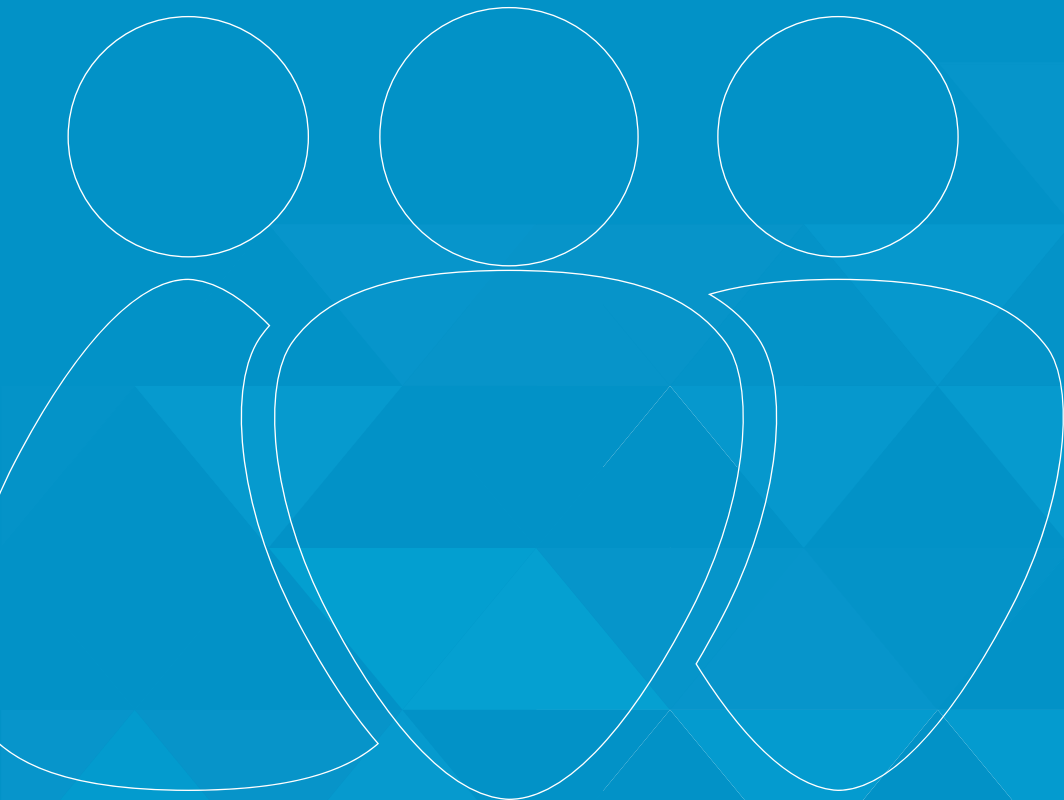

killed by Syrian regime forces

The Syrian Network for Human Rights informed the United Nations Special Rapporteur on the extrajudicial killing on the case of the nurse Khadija Khaled al Dmairi, from Homs governorate, Talbisa city, born in 1968, killed by Syrian regime forces missile launcher's missiles fired on Talbisa city, under the armed opposition factions control at the time of the incident, on June 29, 2017

The Syrian Authorities didn't admit to killing the nurse, and her family couldn't submit a complaint out of fear of security pursuit as they are in an area out of Syrian regime forces control.

SNHR confirmed its fear of the killing of civilians from the year 2011, and the victims' numbers are continuously rising.
