

The Arrest of Khaled Abdul Khaleq

Date of incident: 23/12/2012

Name: Khaled Abd Al Khaliq.

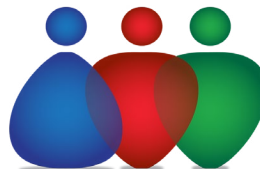

Age: 72- years-old

Arrested by members affiliated to Syrian Intelligence in Jableh city.

SNHR notes that the detainee Khalid Abd Al Khaliq is one of the most notable figures of Jableh city. He was arrested by elements of the Syrian intelligence and they demanded a ransom of 40,000000 SP in exchange for his release.

The citizen has Syrian nationality. No Arab or international human rights organization has pointed out his case or taken action regarding it.

SNHR holds the Syrian government fully responsible for the citizen Khaled Abd Al Khaliq's life, and demand the international community to take action to reveal the fate of thousands of detainees that loses their lives daily and under an unprecedented and systematic torture at the hands of a regime that has no regards for the most basic humanitarian or moral standards with respect to detainees amid the international and humanitarian's failure to hold legal responsibility in regard to what the detainees are being subjected to inside the prisons of the Syrian regime.

Syrian Network For Human Rights
الشبكة السورية لحقوق الإنسان

