The Syrian Network for Human Rights (SNHR), founded in June 2011, is a non-governmental, independent group that is considered a primary source for the OHCHR on all death toll-related analyses in Syria.

The citizen Ahmad Abdullah Tanbouk

killed by Syrian regime forces

The Syrian Network for Human Rights informed the United Nations Special Rapporteur on the extrajudicial killing on the case of the citizen Ahmad Abdullah Tanbouk from Tartus city, al Saha neighborhood, born in 1989, as his family received information, on January 2, 2017, confirming his death due to torture in Syrian regime forces detention center through a call from military police in Damascus city, in which they informed the family that they must come to take a death certificate.

The Syrian Authorities didn't admit to killing the citizen, and his family couldn't submit a complaint out of fear of security pursuit.

SNHR confirmed its fear of the killing of civilians from the year 2011, and the victims' numbers are continuously rising.
