The Death of Turfa Tamer Al Hameid by the Government Forces

The Syrian Network for Human Rights has briefed the UN team concerned with extrajudicial killing of the case of citizen Turfa Tamer Al Hameid from Homs city in Homs province, born in 1981, killed in March 21, 2012 as government forces opened fire on the car she was inside, in February 28, 2012 and asked them to record her case in their records.

The Syrian authorities did not admit killing her, and her family couldn't apply any complaint out of fear of pursuit by the security forces.

SNHR assure its fear of the civilians killings operations since 2011, and the number of deaths is still rising.
